The Six Keys

Put your death in your heart;
This is the key for checking
Whether your practice is tuned too tight or loose.

Think of the viper's nest of the problems of this life; This is the key for stopping Attachment at the bottom of your heart.

Let every thought be of what others need; This is the key for making Everything you ever do the Dharma.

The Six Keys

Don't think of anything but your Lama; This is the key for turning Your mind and Theirs into one.

See the world and people as Angels; This is the key for stopping The idea that life is ordinary.

Whatever comes, make it crystal;
This is the key for making
This life turn to freedom, all by itself.
